- ☐ Do you like the story? Why?

I like this story because this story's substance<sup>subject</sup> is fantastic! In the story Charlie Bucket and his family were the most nice people in town. There

The worst poor people in town. I was a enormous chocolate factory in front of Charlie's hat. The chocolate factory's owner, Mr. Willy Wonka sent 5 golden tickets to 5 countries. These golden tickets are very special. If you have the golden ticket, you could go to Mr. Wonka's factory. You can see all the secrets and magic. Luckily Charlie opened a chocolate and there was a shiny, gleamy, pretty golden ticket. At first, Charlie tried to sell the ticket because his family is too poor. But Grandpa Joe said money is common but that golden ticket is just five and it will be five forever! So Charlie decided to go to the factory. There were 5 kids in the story. Augustus Gloop, Violet Beauregarde, Mike Teevee and Charlie Bucket. But Augustus Gloop sent by candy pipe, Violet turned into a blueberry, Mike Teevee and Veruca went inside a trash can. Charlie

Title: Who is J.K. Rowling?

Author: Pam Pollack and Meg Belviso

Jo was a girl with a wild imagination. She studied hard at school and dreamed of being an author. She was a quiet and good girl.

She was a single mom. She only had enough money to feed her daughter, Jessica. One day, she thought about a British boy wizard with dark hair, glasses, and a lightning scar on his head. She wrote about him and his friends. She worked hard on the book.

Jo's book sold a lot. She became richer than the queen of England. Sometimes, reporters and fans with their cameras annoyed her. On 2011, she announced a new website called Pottermore. She became very famous thanks to Harry Potter.

(Who is J.K. Rowling?)

Dear J.K. Rowling,

I read this book and learned that you did not only write (Harry Potter) but have done some other things. Sometimes I think you are similar to me. I like books and I want to be an author too! I think your imagination is amazing! This book has given me a lot of information about you! I have many questions for you. I'll ask you a few! How long did it take you to write HP? I think it would have taken me a million years! How did you think of HP? I wish to seek advice from you on how to write a perfect book. I want to write fantasy books like you! Do you know anything that might help me? I know your not planning to, but I'll be really happy if you write a book about Harry's son!

you are going to, I'll wait! I bought Bertie Bott's jelly beans cause of HP! (Of course, I checked the box to make sure I didn't get any bad ones!) My favorite flavor was the Marshmallow. I have a plan to visit Universal Studios Orlando this summer. I only want to go there to see (Hogwarts) and buy some wands. I wonder what you think when you see (Hogwarts) build the world's Universal Studios. I am you, I would feel proud. I wonder how satisfied you are with the Harry Potter movies compared to your books. I read the book first and then watched the movie, but it was much more fun to read by imagining it as a book. Thank you for creating my dream book for me! I love one of your fans, Elsa. Great job!!

Book Summary

Book Title: Alibaba and the Forty Thieves

Author: Kate Daynes

Main Character(s): Alibaba Where: in a cave

Setting: When: one day

What happened at the beginning of the story?

Alibaba was an orphan with one brother. But Al's brother was a robber and Al's father was a poor woodcutter. Then one day, while Al's brother was sleeping, he saw the thieves taking treasure from the cave. He tried to enter the cave, but he was caught by the thieves and they killed him.

What happened in the middle of the story?

Al's brother took the gold in the cave and became rich. His brother knew where he was, where he hid the magic words from Al. Al's brother told him the magic words and Al tried to enter the cave. He got the treasure but he was caught by the thieves and they killed him.

What happened at the end of the story?

The thieves found out that there was one more person who knew the magic words. They were looking for him. So the thieves tried to kill him. But Al's brother was so smart that he could escape. He told Al the magic words and Al tried to enter the cave. He got the treasure and he was safe.

Do you like the story? Why?

I like this story because I like Alibaba and Al's brother. It's a good story and it's very fun.

Movie: Kung Fu Panda

My Rating: ★★★★★

The last movie that I watched was Kung Fu Panda. It is about a panda, named Po. He works at his family's restaurant in China. He is slow and fat, but he loves kung fu. He wants to be a kung fu master. Then Po gets a surprise. He gets to study kung fu with his heroes! He has to train hard. He must protect his town from the terrible snow leopard. I thought this movie was awesome!

Avengers: End Game

My Rating: ★★★★★

The last movie that I watched was 'Avengers: End Game'. It is about the Avengers - Captain America, Thor, Iron Man, Black Widow, Hulk, Black Panther, Ant-Man, Doctor Strange, and Spider-Man etc. - who want to do 'Time Travel' and get back all the stones from Thanos. So they collected the stones, but Thanos found out that they came to get the stones. So they had a war. Thanos uses Avengers, Wakanda Kingdom, Doctor Strange's crew, Captain Marvel, and many other people who helped them. Finally, Iron Man got all the stones and beat Thanos. But Iron Man couldn't handle the power and died.

We shouldn't forget Black Widow's death too. She got the soul stone, and Iron Man's death too. It was really sad. On the other hand, I liked that I could like to get superpowers.

Title: Robots are better pets than birds?

Which pet would you choose: a robot or a bird? I think that birds are better than robots for many reasons.

First, birds are smarter than robots. They can speak two languages, however, can't understand what we say. Also, birds are quieter than robots. Birds are noisy too, but robots are noisier than birds. They don't bark like dogs or meow like cats. They grind their teeth on the cage. Finally, birds are easy to take care of them. Robots are dirty, also, but can't wash them because robots are sensitive at water stress. For all these reasons, birds are surely better than robots.
